SUBJECT No. 6.

Educational qualification of village patels and investing them with Criminsl powers.

Messrs. Chiksurappa and Ibrahim Khan, Sira Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—There are many patels in the State who are illiterate and have not the knowledge required for the discharge of their duties. A pass in the Kannada Lower Secondary Examination should be prescribed as the least general educational qualification for patels and they may be invested with magisterial powers as in British India.

SUBJECT No. 10.

Credit of Revenue sale proceeds to deposits.

Mr. Nagegowda, Mulbagal Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Sale proceeds of lands sold on darkhasts are credited to Bab jama at present, pending confirmation of sales. The purchaser has to get the amount by refund, if the sale is cancelled, which means much delay. Sale amounts may be kept in Revenue deposit as hitherto.

Note.—Mover absent.

SUBJECT No. 11.

Disposal of Revenue Appeals.

Messrs. Nanjunda Setti and Naranasetti, Maddagiri Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Unlike in the Civil Courts there is no time-limit within which Revenue appeals should be brought to disposal; no notice of hearing of the cases is given to the parties concerned. The procedure prescribed for Civil cases may be ordered to be followed in Revenue cases also.

Note.—Movers absent.

SUBJECT No. 12.

Recovery of Malki on date trees fit for tapping.

Messrs. A. Dasappa, H. Krishnamurti, Marulusiddappa, Arsikere Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The practice of recovering malki of Rs. 2 on each date tree fit for tapping when disposing of lands on darkhasts may be done away with, as it causes great hardships to poor raiyats.

Note.—Movers absent.
